

An aroid whitefly (Aleurotrachelus sp.)

- ❑ Intercepted in shipments from HI; apparently still an undescribed species.
- ❑ Hosts: La-Lot; Taro; Philodendron; Betel; Basil; Coconut; Plumeria; Malongai; Majesty palm (Ravenea rivularis); Areca palm; ornamental ginger.
- ❑ Field ID: “Pupa” shiny black about 1 mm long, with narrow white fringe of wax,. Younger larvae transparent with white waxy secretions. Eggs elliptical, yellowish and pedunculate [so far, adults have not been intercepted].

